Steven Twedell

PEORIA - Steven K. Twedell, 51, of Peoria died at 5:35 a.m. Thursday, Nov. 20, 2003, at OSF Saint Francis Medical Center.

Born March 11, 1952, in Peoria to Mervin and Phyllis Warner Twedell, he married Debra Stubbs on Sept. 5, 1992, in Peoria. She survives.

Also surviving are his mother of Creve Coeur; one daughter, Carly Twedell of Peoria; one sister, Karen (and Larry) Bradford of Marquette Heights; and three brothers, Jerry (and Jan) of Groveland, Ronald (and Teresa) of Rockwall, Texas, and Richard (and Eleanor) of LeRoy.

He was preceded in death by his father.

He was an instrument specialist for Roche Diagnostics in Indianapolis until becoming ill. He previously was a sales representative for Beckman Industries in Brea, Calif., and had worked for Wyeth-Ayerst Pharmaceutical in Peoria and for Waugh Foods in East Peoria.

He was a member of the Illinois State University Alumni Association.

He also was a member of Northwoods Community Church in Peoria, where services will be at 3 p.m. Sunday. The Rev. Calvin Rychener will officiate. Visitation will be from 4 to 7 p.m. Sunday at Woolsey-Wilton Funeral Home. Cremation will be accorded after the services.

Memorials may be made to a fund for his daughter, in care of South Side Bank, or to the American Brain Tumor Association, 2720 River Road, Des Plaines, IL 60018.
